

Current and Future Election Time Table

Black = Current (Elections are routinely held between 38 to 60 days after the petition is filed, the longer periods occurring in cases where hearings are held to consider complex issues.)

Red = New (Elections will be held as a general rule no later than 24 days after the petition is filed, even if a hearing occurs. In some cases in which there is no hearing, the pre-election period could be as short as 14 days.)
